

Agenda – Wyoming Bike Walk Trails Summit 2018

Pathways to Prosperous Communities

Monday, May 21st – Snow King Resort – Jackson WY

Note: Meetings and Meals are in the Grand View Lodge, uphill from Snow King Resort

4:00 PM – Registration opens at Snow King Resort, Grand View Lodge

5:00 PM – Welcome to the Summit – Wyoming Pathways, Platte River Trails, Friends of Pathways

5:15-6:15 PM – Wyoming Communities “PechaKucha.” Inspiring images and stories from around Wyoming in a fun, engaging slideshow style. Each presenter shows 12 slides in six minutes, to share lessons learned in their efforts to build healthier active communities.

Please join presenters from around Wyoming, including:

- Brad Raney, Green River
- Angela Emery, Casper Platte River Trails
- Lauren Dickey, Friends of Pathways
- Brad Bauer, Sheridan Community Land Trust
- Brian Schilling, Jackson/Teton County
- John Gallagher, Cody Park County Pedalers
- Dan Verbeten, Teton Valley Trails and Pathways
- Paul Gritten, WY State Parks
- Melanie Arnett, Laramie COG
- Wyoming Main Street

6:30-7:15 PM - Dinner

7:30 PM – Welcome, Andy Schwartz, H-23 Wyoming House of Representatives

Keynote Address

Dan Burden, Director of Innovation & Inspiration at Blue Zones - How to Live Longer and Happier Lives Through Active Livable Communities

Tuesday, May 22nd – Snow King Resort – Grand View Lodge

7:30 AM – Breakfast Buffet – Grand View Lodge

8:00 AM – Welcome – Pete Muldoon, Mayor of Jackson

8:15-9:15 AM – Active & Prosperous Communities, moderated by Dan Burden:

A panel discussion with key agencies for active and prosperous communities on incorporating recommendations for active transportation and recreation into agency planning, with an overview of current and planned programs for community assistance.

- Tom Forslund, Director, Wyoming Department of Health
- Taylor Rossetti, Administrator, Wyoming Department of Transportation
- Dave Glenn, Wyoming State Parks/Office of Outdoor Recreation
- Bryan Cawley, Division Administrator, Federal Highway Administration

9:15-10:30 AM – Joe Gilpin, Vice-President, Alta Planning – Wyoming Bicycle & Pedestrian System Report 2018

Learn about the State's most recent effort to study the health, economic and community benefits of bicycle and pedestrian pathways and natural surface trails and ways your community can leverage existing opportunities and address current challenges. Q&A following presentation.

10:30-10:45 AM – Break

10:45-11:45 AM – Improve Health Outcomes with Active Living Programs:

- Jodie Pond, Teton County Director of Health
- Julia Heemstra, Wellness Department Director at St. John's Medical Center
- Neil Short, AARP
- Maria Hipp, Chronic Disease Prevention, Wyoming Department of Health

11:45-12:00 PM – National Bicycle and Rail Trail Routes - Wyoming Updates

- Marianne Fowler, Rails to Trails Conservancy – Great American Rail Trail
- Saara Snow, Adventure Cycling – TransAmerica US Bicycle Route

12:00 PM – Lunch – Grand View Room

12:30-1:30 PM – Clark Anderson, Executive Director, Community Builders – Making the Economic Case for Active Transportation. – Highlighting rural communities that have improved economic outcomes and livability through main street enhancements and collaborative community planning efforts.

1:30-2:30 PM – Johan Diepens, CEO, Mobycon – From Living City to Living Street: Dutch solutions for walking and biking in the US – Since 2012, Mobycon has been active in adapting international best practices knowledge to support mobility innovation in North America. In Spring 2015, Mobycon opened its first North American office in Ottawa, Ontario and a satellite office in Durham, NC. Learn about cities in America that have incorporated European style walk and bike infrastructure to build healthier, more active communities.

Tuesday, May 22nd (continued) – In and Around Jackson

3:00-5:00 PM ACTIVE FIELD TRIPS

Sign up recommended – see registration desk

1. Walking Audit with Dan Burden – Town of Jackson. Begins with brief talk at Snow King, then out on the town streets with Dan to learn how streets can improve. Learn to see streets with a fresh eye to improvements with the inventor of the Walking Audit.
2. Building Healthy Communities through Natural Surface Trails, with Friends of Pathways Trail Crew– Nelson Trailhead, Nelson Knoll and Wood Canyon projects. Learn about the remarkable partnership with the Forest Service and how your community can also partner and improve trails.
3. Bike Tour of Jackson’s Town Bike Network, Garaman Park and School Pathway Complex – Try out the new Bike Share – bikes will be provided. Tour town facilities with Friends of Pathways.

Tuesday Evening “Dinner on Your Own” Option:

Snake River Brewery, 265 S. Millward Street, Jackson

Tents outside on the Pub’s new people-friendly Lawn

Bring a poster of your pathway and trail projects and share with others over a beer and dinner at the Snake River Brewery.

Dinner available on your own, coupon for free beer with dinner included with Summit.

Wednesday, May 23rd – Jackson WY

Wednesday Morning “Breakfast on Your Own”

Wednesday, May 23rd – Snow King Resort – Grand View Lodge

8:00 - 10:00 AM – Community Builders Workshop - Bring Home a Plan for Your Community
Main Street

10:30 - 12:30 PM – Mobycon Workshop - Vision Zero + Complete Streets in Action: Safe streets for All Road Users